

The following table outlines for departments the key dates relating to the administration of Student Module Feedback surveys for the 2024-25 academic year. To ensure the accessibility of the information, a text summary of the key dates is available on the second page of this document.

	Data collection: departments to review provisional module lists for surveying, and to inform QUAD of any surveys which need to be surveyed outside of the default timeline, any changes to module leads, and any updates or additions to the departmental optional question sets.
	Default survey open dates: Student Module Feedback surveys will be open for student responses. All students will receive an email containing links to their module surveys and can also access any available surveys via Moodle .
	Run response rates: QUAD will provide departments with response rates for all active surveys via their shared Student Module Feedback Box folder.
	Target date for distributing results to departments: QUAD will provide departments with PDF results reports for each survey via Box and will provide the results data to the Planning and Data Insights Team for publication to Tableau. Departments should ensure results reports for module surveys are shared as appropriate with teaching staff.
