

Sociology and Criminology – Recommended Summer Schools 2025

There is funding available to support you with this experience as detailed below. You can also choose to complete a summer school via Essex Abroad.

Brazil - Brazil Intensive Seminar
Programme Name:	Critical Pedagogies of Emergencies on Immigration
Location:	LaSalle, Canoas, Brazil
Website:	TBA
Approximate Dates:	Dates to be confirmed, but usually held over July / August.
Brief Overview:	Seminars are usually offered from a variety of topics, including international law, criminal justice, restorative justice, international trade, critical race theory, decolonial theory, political philosophy, law and finance. This programme hosts a number of visiting professors from across the world, including Bergen University, Essex University (featuring Sociology & Criminology staff member Dr Phoebe Kisubi), Coimbra University and Coruña University. Classes take place on site at LaSalle University, Canoas, Brazil. SC389).
Staff Expert:	Dr Phoebe Kisubi
Who Can Apply?	All UG students but may be of particular interest to students on our political economy, media, and sexuality studies modules (e.g. SC233, SC389).
Application Process:	Applications are direct and will be via the website (once available).
Costs:	Programme fees are expected to be around $400 – applicants will also need to consider accommodation, flights, and personal costs.

Sociology and Criminology Summer Abroad Grant – Summer 2025

The Sociology and Criminology Summer Abroad Grant is open to all undergraduate students (2nd and 3rd Year, or final year for 4-year course) whose home department is Sociology and Criminology.

Turing Scheme Funding

In addition to above you can also apply for Turing Scheme Funding via Essex Abroad. Turing Scheme funding is from £21 per day and provides with support towards your travel and living costs whilst abroad.

Essex Abroad

There is a range of summer abroad funding via Essex Abroad that you can apply for, depending on your individual circumstances.

Funding Opportunities: